Forever - John Michael Montgomery

B
I guess I'm just a little bit scared

I guess I'm not as strong as I thought

When I see you lying there I worry about losing you

I used to think of only me but that was long ago

Now I find it hard to conceive life without you

Baby I don't want to be the one to face this life,

All alone at the end of the day

When the sun goes down I want you right here in my arms forever

Every little smile every move you make

It's like a dagger to my heart took my breath away

Now all I ask is that you be mine forever, forever

So think about what you're doing here

If you're anything less than sincere tell me now

And let yourself out the door

No harm no foul kill me now save me all the pain

But if you feel the way I do stay let me make love to you

Baby I don't want to be the one to face this life

All alone at the end of the day

When the sun goes down I want you right here in my arms forever

Every little smile every move you make

It's like a dagger to my heart took my breath away

All I ask is that you be mine forever, forever
