

Secondhand Serenade - Maybe

Chorus

Intro: E | B | C#m | A2 B2 | E | B | C#m B | A2 C#m B | E
 Verse: E | C#m | B | A2

Didn't you want to hear the sound of all the places we could go Do you fear
 the expressions on the faces we don't know It's a cold hard road when you wake up and I don't think that I Have the strength to let you go

Chorus: ~~E-B-C#m-A2~~

Maybe it's just me, Couldn't you believe that everything I said and did, wasn't just deceiving
 And the tear in your eye, and your calm hard face
 makes me wish that I was never brought into this place

Verse2: ~~E-B-C#m-A2~~ E | C#m | B | A2

There goes my ring
 It might as well have been shattered and I'm here to sing about the things that mattered about the things that made us feel alive for oh so long about the things that kept you on my side when I was wrong

Chorus: ~~E-B-C#m-A2~~

Maybe it's just me, Couldn't you believe
 that everything I said and did, wasn't just deceiving
 And the tear in your eye, and your calm hard face
 makes me wish that I was never brought into this place
